

8th Symposium of the International Society for the History of Radiology

Brussels 28 Sept 2019

Prof. Dr. Michel Collard

Radiology Professor Emeritus

He qualified in medicine from the Université de Liège, BE and trained in Radiology at the Centre hospitalier universitaire de Liège. He qualified as university lecturer at the Université Libre de Bruxelles.

He was appointed radiologist, head of the department Medical Imaging at the Centre hospitalier universitaire Vésale of Montigny-le-Tilleul and later on radiologist, head of the department Medical Imaging at the Centre hospitalier universitaire Citadelle of Liège.

He was a member of the Belgian Federal Council for Hospital facilities and president of the Conseil wallon des établissements de soins.

He was also member of the health sciences council of the Fonds national de la recherche scientifique (FNRS).

Presents:

First CT in Belgium - 6th in the world

The story of being a pioneer in the Belgian radiology world, installing the first CT in Belgium in 1974 in the Centre Hospitalier Montigny-le-Tilleul, nearby Charleroi. It was only the sixth unit in the world.